Note:

1. Call letters for the interview, including the date, time, and venue, will be issued only via email to the shortlisted candidates and hosted on the Institute's website. No separate communication will be sent by post.
2. Candidates who are employed in Government Departments, Autonomous Bodies, Public Sector Undertakings, Universities or any other organisation requiring prior permission shall produce a No Objection Certificate (NOC) from their present employer at the time of interview, if their application has not been forwarded through the proper channel. Failure to produce the requisite NOC, wherever applicable, shall render the candidate ineligible to appear for the interview and the candidature shall be treated as cancelled.
3. The candidature of all shortlisted candidates is purely provisional and is subject to verification of eligibility conditions, educational qualifications, experience, age, category certificates and all other claims made in the application. Candidates shall produce the original certificates along with one set of self-attested photocopies at the time of interview/document verification. If, at any stage of the recruitment process or even after appointment, it is found that the candidate does not fulfil the prescribed eligibility criteria or has furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information or suppressed any material fact, his/her candidature/appointment shall be cancelled without assigning any further reason.
4. Mere shortlisting for an interview or inclusion of a candidate in the list of shortlisted candidates shall not confer any right to appointment. C-MET reserves the right to restrict the number of candidates called for interview, modify or cancel the recruitment process, or not fill the advertised vacancy without assigning any reason.

Instructions:

1. Candidates who have been declared Screened Out/Ineligible and are desirous of submitting a representation against their non-shortlisting may do so within 7 (seven) days from the date of publication of this list on the C-MET website. The representation, along with supporting documentary evidence establishing their eligibility as on the prescribed closing date of the advertisement, should be submitted only through e-mail at registrar@cmet.gov.in for consideration by the Screening Committee.

2. Representations received after the stipulated time, without supporting documentary evidence, or based on claims/documents not submitted before the closing date of the advertisement, shall not be considered. No new qualification, experience or claim acquired after the closing date for receipt of applications shall be entertained.
3. The representation shall be examined only with reference to the eligibility conditions prescribed in the advertisement and the documents available as on the closing date of receipt of applications. The decision of the Screening Committee/Competent Authority on such representations shall be final and binding, and no further correspondence or queries in this regard shall be entertained.

Note: Submission of a representation does not confer any right to be shortlisted for an interview. Only those candidates whose representations are found valid upon scrutiny by the Screening Committee shall be considered for inclusion in the supplementary list of shortlisted candidates.
